BEDFORD COUNTY COMMISSIONERS SPEAK AT CHAMBER BREAKFAST

The Government Affairs Committee of the Bedford County Chamber of Commerce hosted all three Bedford County Commissioners Friday morning at a Government It's Your Business (GIYB) breakfast meeting at Heartland Hall. Commissioners Herline, Howsare and Ebersole opened the meeting my each giving a state of the County address. Marty Malone of P. Joseph Lehman, Inc., Consulting Engineers, who moderated the event, followed with a series of questions from the audience. Lehman Engineers was also the sponsor of this event. Questions ranged from the status of the reassessment to wind energy in the County. Approximately fifty (50) members of the business community attended the meeting.

The Government Affairs Committee holds these events in order for Chamber members to have better interface with federal, state and local political leaders. Elected state officials will be featured at the February 19th meeting at Heartland Hall.
