NEWS RELEASE

P. Joseph Lehman, Inc. Cuts Ribbon on Bedford County Office

Dateline: August 3, 2010 – Bedford, PA

The Bedford County Chamber of Commerce held a ribbon cutting August 3, 2010 to celebrate the new Bedford Office of P. Joseph Lehman, Inc. Consulting Engineers at 124 South Richard Street in downtown Bedford.

Local officials and community members met to officially welcome the Hollidaysburg based firm, which has been providing services in Bedford County for more than forty years. On hand were all three Bedford County Commissioners: Mike Herline, Steve Howsare and Gary Ebersole, as well as representatives from the office of State Representative Dick Hess. Well-wishes were also extended from Congressman Bill Shuster's office, the Bedford County Development Association and Downtown Bedford, Inc.

About P. Joseph Lehman, Inc: P. Joseph Lehman has performed design and grantsmanship for nearly twenty historic covered bridges throughout the Commonwealth. In addition, they provide transportation design for more conventional bridges and roadway projects for the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation, the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission and local municipalities.

On August 9, 2007, the company opened their first satellite office, which was located in Mount Joy, PA. The company is comprised of a team of highly skilled professionals who are experienced specialists in transportation design, structural design, site development, surveying (including GPS surveying services), environmental engineering, and construction services. P. Joseph Lehman, Inc. Consulting Engineers is looking forward to continuing to serve Bedford County and being an active member of the community.
