LEHMAN ENGINEERS WELCOMES J. WARREN STONER TO THE BRIDGE DEPARTMENT

Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania - P. JOSEPH LEHMAN, Inc., Consulting Engineers is very pleased to announce that Mr. Warren Stoner has joined the firm as Constructability Review Manager within our Bridge Department. Warren brings over 32 years of highway construction experience to the firm. His years of experience working for heavy contractors will assist Lehman Engineers in producing readily constructible projects with minimized future maintenance requirements. He is also experienced in project management and field operations management. Recently, Warren assisted in managing a 15 million dollar bridge project over the Cape Fear River, North Carolina. This structure is 7 spans and 980' long. Warren received his Bachelors of Science degree from Penn State University, University Park. He currently resides in State College, PA with his wife Nancy.
